COURSES OF INSTRUCTION.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES.

CLASSICAL AND SCIENTIFIC DEPARTMENTS.

The Classical Department embraces the course of study usually pursued in the leading American Colleges.

The demand for what is deemed by some a more practical Course of Instruction than that afforded by the established System, has induced the Trustees and Overseers to provide for an additional Department of Study so constituted and directed as to afford a symmetrical and liberal education, and at the same time to place the student in more immediate relations with the active world and his own work in it.

The conditions of the case have made it necessary that the requirements for admission to the new Department should be different in some respects from the requirements for the Classical Course; but it will be found that the kind and degree of study required throughout the Scientific Course is the reverse of superficial, and that the two Courses viewed at their completion will be as nearly equal as the different phases and directions of the studies will permit.

It will be seen in the more detailed statements which follow, that the College is endeavoring to concentrate all available means and appliances for the best possible education; and moreover to bring all these advantages within reach of every person who can profitably enjoy them.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY AND THE ARTS.

The undergraduate course of four years being insufficient to accomplish many desirable ends, provision has been made to carry the student forward to a more complete philosophical view, or practical application of his studies in an additional course of two years. The College is prepared to give systematic instruction in the following schools:—

- I. LETTERS.—Comprising Languages, Ancient and Modern (including the Oriental), with their literatures; Philology; Rhetoric; Logic; History; Elocution; the Fine Arts. This leads to the degree of Master of Arts,—A.M.
- II. SCIENCE.—Advanced Mathematics, Physics, Natural History and Chemistry, in their uses and applications. This leads to the degree of Doctor of Science,—Sc.D.
- III. PHILOSOPHY.—Comprising the above, considered in their reasons and relations; Psychology, Metaphysics, Ethics, Esthetics; Politics; Theory of Government, Constitutional History, Principles of Law, International Law. Leading to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy,—Ph.D.
- IV. MEDICINE.—The Medical School of Maine. Degree,—M.D.

Students who are not graduates will be received on satisfactory evidence of proficiency in study which will enable them to profit by this Course.

DEGREES.

FIRST DEGREES.

The degree of Bachelor of Arts,—A.B., certifies the completion of the Classical Course.

The degree of Bachelor of Science,—Sc.B., certifies the completion of the regular course in the Department of Science. In the specialty of Engineering, however, the degree of Civil Engineer,—C.E., may be taken if preferred.

Students for the degree of Sc.B. or C.E., may, upon passing examination in two Latin and two Greek authors prescribed, receive also the degree of A.B. Students for the degree of A.B., may, upon passing examination in any two prescribed studies of the Scientific Department, receive the degree of Sc.B.

Graduates in either Course may receive any other First Degree on completing one year in the appropriate studies of the Post-Graduate Course.

It will be seen that the degree of Bachelor of Arts is not given except upon a thorough knowledge of Latin and Greek, nor the degree of Bachelor of Science except upon a practical acquaintance with the higher scientific branches; and that no degree is conferred without four full years of study, including the regular course of Mathematics and Modern Languages.

SECOND DEGREES.

1. Graduates who shall have pursued the Post-Graduate Course systematically for two years, will be advanced to the degree of Master of Arts, or to either of the degrees appropriate to their studies.

2. Graduates of the College who present satisfactory evidence of having pursued liberal or professional studies in any regular way for three years,—such as private students in Law, Theology, Medicine; or of having devoted themselves for that length of time to scientific or literary pursuits, such as Editors, Authors, Artists, Teachers of the higher branches of learning;—or who sustain an examination at the end of that time in any of the advanced studies in the School of Letters, will thereupon be admitted to the degree of Master of Arts. The degree of Master of Arts will not hereafter be conferred as mere matter of course.

3. Students who have completed the Course in either Letters, Science or Philosophy, may receive the degree of any other of said Schools, upon taking one year of study in the same.

4. College graduates who have taken the degree in Medicine, may take any of the other degrees mentioned above, upon the same conditions.

5. Graduates of the College, taking a regular course in any other recognized Professional School, may also take any of the above-named degrees, upon three terms of residence and study here.

6. Graduates of other Colleges will be received into the Post-Graduate Course with its privileges.

FELLOWSHIPS.

Graduates who have completed any Course in the Post-Graduate studies with honor, may be appointed FELLOWS, to reside at College with all the privileges of the same, one or two years further, without charge, enjoying facilities for studies still more advanced, and opportunities for teaching in the line of their specialties.

SPECIAL STUDIES.

Facilities will be afforded those who desire to pursue special studies, either by themselves, or in connection with the regular classes, without becoming matriculated members of College.

CLASSICAL DEPARTMENT.

TERMS OF ADMISSION.

Candidates for admission into the Freshman Class are examined as follows:—

Harkness's Latin Grammar, including Prosody; Parts I. and II. Harkness's Introduction to Latin Prose Composition; Virgil, the Bucolics, Georgics, and six books of the Æneid; Cicero's Select Orations; Sallust.

Goodwin's Greek Grammar; Goodwin's Greek Reader; or Xenophon's Anabasis, four books, and Homer's Iliad, two books.

Arithmetic, including the metric system; Algebra, to equations of the second degree; Davies's Legendre's Geometry, first and third books.

English Grammar; Ancient and Modern Geography.

They must produce certificates of their good moral character. The time for examination is the Friday after Commencement, and the first Thursday of the first term. Candidates for admission into the other classes will be examined in the books which have been studied by the class into which admission is requested. A student from another college, before he can be examined, must produce a certificate of his regular dismissal.

Real equivalents for any of the foregoing requirements will be accepted.

An Honorary Scholarship, amounting to $60, will be given to the student who passes the best entrance examination in the Ancient Languages, and an equal Scholarship for the best examination in Mathematics.

CABINETS.

The Cabinets, available for purposes of illustration, in the department of Natural Science, are the following:—

The Museum of the First Geological Survey of Maine.

The Cleaveland and Haüy-Collections of Minerals.

The Shattuck Conchological collection.

The Cushman Ornithological collection.

The Blake Herbarium.

The Anatomical Museum.

Under certain regulations, the Cabinets are accessible to all students of the College.

THE GALLERY OF PAINTINGS.

By the Will of the Hon. JAMES BOWDOIN, the College in 1811 came into possession of his entire collection of paintings, about one hundred in number, procured by him with great care and expense in Europe, and considered at that time the finest collection in this country. Valuable paintings presented by other donors, including the entire collection of the late Col. GEORGE W. BOYD, have since been added. By the favor of its friends the College is still receiving Portraits and Busts of eminent persons, and various works of art, which greatly enhance the value and attractiveness of its collections. The Gallery will be open on Wednesdays at 12 M.; and admission may be gained at other times for purposes of study by application to the President or Curator.

LIBRARIES.

The number of volumes in the College Library is	17,233
Medical Library	4,000
Peucinian	7,150
Athenæum	5,950
Total,	<hr/> 34,333

The College Library is open for consultation daily, except Sundays.

The rooms, library, and interesting collections of the Maine Historical Society are immediately contiguous to the College Library, and, under regulation, are accessible to all persons who desire to visit them.

ELOCUTION.

It will be perceived that much prominence is given to the matter of Elocution, Reading and Oratory. A Professor has been engaged for this purpose, and the instruction is personal and continuous throughout the Course.

ENGINEERING.

Special facilities are now offered to students in the various branches of Engineering. Not only are the means of theoretical instruction ample, but the location is highly favorable; the town of Brunswick lying between the lower falls of the Androscoggin and the Ocean, in near vicinity to Portland, Lewiston and Bath; itself the seat of various manufactures, and one of the principal railroad centres in the State, and thus affording peculiar opportunities for the practical study of actual works. The College also enjoys many favors from the United States Coast-Survey Office.

MILITARY SCIENCE.

In accordance with the laws of the United States, and by direction of the President, an Officer of the Army has been detailed to give instruction in this College. The Boards have accepted and authorized this Department of Instruction, and placed it on an equal footing with any other in respect to authority and discipline. The students will be required to attend such exercises as may be prescribed by the Faculty, unless excused by reason of physical disability or religious scruple.

The instruction will be conveniently dispersed through the course, and will embrace personal, squad, company and battalion drill; the tactics of the three Arms; Guard and Outpost Duty; Principles of Strategy; Engineering; Ordnance and Gunnery; Military History, Law and Regulations.

During the season favorable to exercise in the open air, there will be a daily drill of one hour, closing with a Dress Parade at sunset. At other times there will be occasional exercises within doors, for the purpose of illustrating topics of instruction, and keeping up the spirit of the Department.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION.

In order to promote a symmetrical and manly education, much attention is now given to Physical Culture. The exercises are based upon physiological and hygienic principles, and are directed not with a view to make professional experts, but to make the development of the bodily powers tend at the same time to the discipline of the mind.

The Gymnasium is provided with the most approved apparatus. It is open every day except Sunday, during such hours as do not interfere with other College duties. Attendance, to a certain extent, is required. Both the voluntary and the regular exercises are under the immediate supervision of the Director, and in neither will any random, violent or injurious practice be allowed. The class drill is a systematic course, while special exercises will be prescribed for individual cases.

It is the intention, in order to secure proper and sufficient physical exercise, to alternate between the Gymnasium and the Military. At present the requirements are the Gymnastic drill from the latter part of October to the end of the Second term, and the Military drill from the beginning of the Summer term to the middle or latter part of October. Voluntary exercises will be permitted under regulation.

Both an Orchestral and a Military Band have recently been organized, which will add much interest to these exercises and to various public occasions.

THE MEDICAL SCHOOL OF MAINE, by an act of the Legislature, is placed under the superintendence and direction of the Boards of Trustees and Overseers of Bowdoin College. By the joint authority of these two Boards all the degrees of M.D. are conferred.

Adams Hall, the new Medical College, affords most ample accommodations for every department of the School.

The Course of Lectures for 1873, will commence January 9, and continue twenty weeks. The Introductory Lecture will be delivered at 3 o'clock P.M.

It is highly important that students should be present at the commencement of the Session.

Students on arriving should call at once at the office of Dr. ELLIS, Registrar and Treasurer, to enter their names, present their certificates, and purchase their tickets. They will also be able to obtain through him all needful information in regard to boarding-houses.

No student will be allowed to attend any Course of Lectures in this school without the certificate of the Secretary. Members of the medical profession are cordially invited to attend the Lectures at any time.

Graduates of other Schools, who have been engaged three years in the regular practice of medicine, may receive a general ticket upon presentation of their diplomas and payment of the matriculation fee.

Every student is expected to remain till the close of the term. Those who are absent during any portion of the term will receive certificates of actual attendance only.

The Fees for admission to the several Courses of Lectures, payable in advance, are $75.

The Graduation fee, including an engraved Diploma on Parchment, is $20. Matriculation or Library fee, payable each Course, $5.

Pupils who have attended two full Courses of Medical Lectures, one of which Courses must have been at this School, are admitted to all subsequent Courses, without payment of any Lecture fees.

Students who have attended two full Courses at other regular Medical Institutions, are required to pay $30 for admission to their First Course of Lectures at this School, in addition to the matriculation fee.

Members of the Medical School may, at their request, have the privilege of attending, without additional expense, the Lectures on Natural History delivered to the undergraduates during the Medical Session.

GRADUATION.

Candidates for the Degree of Doctor of Medicine are examined by the Faculty of Medicine immediately after the termination of the Course of Lectures, and also on the second Monday before the annual Commencement of the College, which occurs on the second Wednesday of July.

They must have devoted three years to their professional studies under the direction of a regular Practitioner of Medicine. They must have attended two full Courses of Medical Lectures in some incorporated Medical Institution, and the last Course previous to examination must have been at this Medical School. They must deposit with the Faculty satisfactory certificates of having pursued their Medical Studies for the required term, and of possessing at the time of examination a good moral character. They must also pass a satisfactory Examination in Anatomy, Physiology, Surgery, Chemistry, Materia Medica, Pharmacy, Obstetrics, and the Theory and Practice of Medicine. They must read and defend a Thesis or Dissertation on some Medical subject, in the presence of the Faculty of Medicine.

Those Candidates who have not received a Collegiate education, must satisfy the Faculty of their proficiency in the Latin Language and in Natural Philosophy.

Degrees are conferred at the annual Commencement of the College in July.

A fair copy of the Thesis or Dissertation must be deposited with the Secretary of the Faculty at least ten days before the commencement of the Examination at the close of the Lectures. These copies are preserved in the Medical Library; and it is required that they should be written on letter paper of medium size, with a wide margin left for the purpose of binding them into volumes.

LIBRARY.

The Medical Library attached to this School, is one of the best in the United States. It contains about 4000 volumes,—principally modern works, which have been selected with much care,—and is constantly increasing. It embraces an extensive and valuable collection of Plates, among which are the works of Albinus, Baillie, Bateman, the Bells, Bresehet, Bright, Carswell, Cloquet, Cooper, Cruveilhier, Home, Hooper, Lizars, Maygrier, Searpa, Scerig, Swan, Tiedemann, Vicq d'Azyr, Weber, &c., &c.

Each member of the Medical Class is entitled to borrow two volumes a week from the Library. Those who are candidates for examination for the degree of M.D. during the year, are permitted to exchange their books twice a week, thus giving them the privilege of consulting four volumes each week.

ANATOMICAL CABINET.

The Anatomical Cabinet was purchased in Paris; and many of the Preparations were there made under the direction of the late Professor Thillaye. Many wet preparations have however been added from year to year. Its valuable specimens of Morbid and Comparative Anatomy are also constantly increasing; so that every department of practical Anatomy can now be fully demonstrated from this collection.

CHEMISTRY.

The Chemical Department embraces every article of Apparatus essential to a complete illustration of the principles of Chemistry. This Course includes a very full exhibition of the principles of Common and Galvanic Electricity, Electro-Magnetism, and Magneto-Electricity, with numerous experiments. Students may also avail themselves of the facilities afforded for the study of Analytical Chemistry in the College.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE.

Lectures will be given to the Medical Class on those departments of Natural Philosophy which are especially connected with Medical Science; and students who desire it may remain during the year for the prosecution of study in the Natural or Physical Sciences, in the Post-Graduate Course of the College.

SURGERY.

An extensive and valuable collection of Instruments and Apparatus has been provided for the department of Surgery; which will be completed by the Professor in this Department. Frequent opportunities for witnessing Surgical operations will be afforded.

Clinics are held every Saturday morning during the term. Patients requiring medical or surgical advice and treatment may present themselves on Saturday morning from 8 to 11 o'clock.

All examinations in the presence of the Class are made without charge. All surgical operations are gratuitously performed by the Professor of Surgery. It is considered important that this fact should be extensively made known to the public.

The foregoing is a brief statement of the means of acquiring Medical Knowledge which may be enjoyed at this Institution. No efforts will be spared by the Professors which may tend to render these means beneficial, and to promote the instruction of pupils in Medical Science.
